Class rules

- No picking up & dropping off service – Each one should come to the class on their own; by car, bike or on foot etc.).
- Each applicant has to buy an accident insurance which covers children against injuries as a result of an accident on the way to class or during the class.
(The insurance fee: 500 yen per year.)
- This class mainly offers support for the students' self-study or Japanese language support, not providing teaching like JUKU. (Each one should bring their own learning materials which they would like to study with or buy workbooks recommended in the class.)
